Canadian Education Association

The Canadian Education Association was established in 1891 and its function is service - to all who work in education or are concerned about it. Its aim is to contribute to the improvement of education in Canada. CEA provides practical services to professional educators, institutions, governments, the general public, special interest groups, and organizations that represent them.

The Association convenes general and special meetings to share information and exchange views on educational problems and opportunities. It publishes information notes, periodicals, a directory and special reports on critical issues in both official languages. It conducts surveys and provides an information service that is available to all. The CEA brings together the education community.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

The Canadian Education Association receives support through grants from departments of education. About 121 school systems across Canada subscribe to the CEA Information Services. These two sources, plus cost recovery sales of publications and services, and membership fees, provide most of the CEA's revenue.

DIRECTORS

The CEA's board of directors is composed of representatives from departments of education, local school systems, teacher training institutions, and others interested in the work of the Association. The Executive Committee consists of the president, immediate past president, first and second vice-presidents and three other directors.

MAJOR ACTIVITIES

The annual CEA convention brings together most educational leaders from all provinces and territories for discussion of topics of current concern. It is Canadian education's major annual national forum and normally attracts an attendance of about 1000.

The Association's annual Short Course for Educational Leaders is a popular and highly respected two-week professional development course held at Banff. It is normally attended by about 80 people and is organized in co-operation with the department of educational administration of a major university.

The CEA also sponsors an annual conference for directors of major city school boards, as well as seminars and meetings for other special interest groups.

The CEA is the co-ordinating office for teacher exchange programs with Britain, the United States, and the Federal Republic of Germany.

AWARDS

The CEA sponsors and administers three national awards. The CEA-Whitworth Award for Educational Research annually honours someone who has made an outstanding contribution to educational research in Canada. The F. K. Stewart Fellowship is presented to a school administrator in a different province or territory each year so that the winner may attend the CEA Short Course for Educational Leaders in Banff all expenses paid. The CEA also sponsors a CEA Award of Excellence for audio-visual productions at the Association of Media and Technology in Education in Canada's annual conference.

INFORMATION AND RESEARCH

The CEA acts as a clearinghouse for information on various aspects of public education and serves as a central source of information on educational matters. Through personal liaison and a wide variety of regular publications and special reports, the CEA makes information about innovations, current trends and practices readily available to professional educators and others.

The Canadian Education Association publishes four regular periodicals. Education Canada appears four times a year; it aims to keep educators up-to-date by articles on education. The CEA Newsletter, distributed nine times a year, reports educational news from across Canada. The Bulletin is issued nine times a year and is designed to help keep francophone CEA members informed of educational developments. The departmental News Bulletin, and Le petit bulletin, issued fortnightly from September to June, are published mainly for the benefit of departmental officials to keep them informed about announcements of programs or policies in other departments of education. In addition, the Association annually produces this CEA Handbook.

The Association also regularly produces a variety of reports on current education practices, including detailed compilations of information that provide Canada-wide analyses on a wide range of topics.

JOIN THE CEA

Individual membership is open to anyone for a fee of $80 a year (September 1990 to August 1991; $85 September 1991 to August 1992). It entitles an individual to a free subscription to the quarterly magazine Education Canada and the CEA Newsletter (nine issues a year). Members also receive a discount on all general publications produced by the CEA and are entitled to reduced registration fees at the annual CEA convention and at all CEA seminars.

Associate membership is available to non-commercial associations, institutions and organizations involved in or concerned about education for a fee of $245. It entitles the organization to one free copy of all CEA publications in both English and French and the right to register any number of official representatives at a reduced rate at the annual CEA convention and all CEA seminars.

SPECIAL INFORMATION SERVICE FOR SCHOOL BOARDS

For a fee based on student enrolment (minimum $325) school boards may subscribe to the CEA Information Service and receive multiple copies of reports, regular periodicals and other informative notes as they come off the press. Details on the CEA Information Service supplied on request.

Association canadienne d'éducation

L'Association canadienne d'éducation, créée en 1891, sert tous ceux qui se consacrent à l'éducation ou qui s'y intéressent particulièrement. Son but est de contribuer à l'amélioration de l'enseignement au Canada. L'ACE offre des services utiles aux éducateurs de profession, aux établissements d'enseignement, aux ministères, aux particuliers, aux groupes ayant des intérêts spéciaux et aux organismes qui les représentent.

L'association organise des réunions de tout genre dans le but de diffuser l'information et d'échanger des opinions relatives aux problèmes et aux possibilités nouvelles en matière d'éducation. Elle publie des bulletins, des périodiques, et des rapports spéciaux concernant des questions critiques, dans les deux langues officielles. Elle entreprend des recherches et offre un service d'information dont tous peuvent bénéficier. L'ACE réunit le monde de l'éducation.

FINANCEMENT

L'Association canadienne d'éducation reçoit annuellement des octrois des ministères de l'éducation. Quelque 121 commissions scolaires canadiennes sont abonnées à ses Services d'information. Ces deux sources de revenus, auxquelles s'ajoutent la vente à prix coûtant de ses publications et de ses services, ainsi que les cotisations des membres individuels, constituent le budget de l'ACE.

CONSEIL D'ADMINISTRATION

Le Conseil d'administration de l'ACE comprend des représentants des ministères de l'éducation, des commissions scolaires, des établissements de formation des maîtres, et des particuliers que l'association intéresse. Le Bureau de direction comprend le président, le président sortant, les premier et second vice-présidents et trois membres du Conseil d'administration.

PRINCIPALES ACTIVITÉS

Le Congrès annuel de l'ACE constitue un forum national où les éducateurs du Canada peuvent se rencontrer et discuter des questions qui les préoccupent. Chaque année, le congrès attire quelque mille délégués.

En collaboration avec la faculté des sciences de l'éducation d'une grande université, l'ACE organise tous les ans un stage de perfectionnement professionnel en administration de l'éducation de deux semaines, à Banff, où s'inscrivent environ 80 personnes. L'ACE organise également une conférence annuelle pour les directeurs des grandes commissions scolaires urbaines, ainsi que des colloques pour divers organismes.

L'ACE coordonne des échanges d'enseignants avec la Grande-Bretagne, les États-Unis et la République fédérale allemande.

PRIX

L'ACE offre trois prix nationaux. Le Trophée ACE-Whitworth pour la recherche en éducation est décerné chaque année à une personne qui a fait une contribution remarquable à la recherche en éducation au Canada. La bourse F.K. Stewart est présentée à un administrateur ou administratrice chaque année pour lui permettre d'assister au stage d'étude en administration de l'éducation de l'ACE à Banff, toutes dépenses payées. L'ACE offre aussi un Prix d'Excellence pour une réalisation audiovisuelle présentée au congrès annuel de l'Association des média et de la technologie en éducation au Canada.

INFORMATION ET RECHERCHE

L'ACE est un centre d'information sur les questions d'instruction

publique. Par le truchement de ses publications et autres modes de communication, elle informe les cadres de l'éducation et les autres personnes intéressées des innovations, des orientations et des pratiques en vigueur dans les différentes parties du pays.

L'ACE publie quatre périodiques : Éducation Canada paraît quatre fois l'an; son but est d'offrir aux éducateurs des articles sur les questions pédagogiques de l'heure. Le bulletin (Newsletter en anglais) paraît neuf fois l'an et fait état des événements survenus au Canada; il renseigne aussi les éducateurs d'expression française sur les activités de leurs collègues et les événements en éducation. Le petit bulletin, publié bimensuellement et surtout destiné aux hauts fonctionnaires des ministères de l'éducation, fait état des derniers développements survenus à ce niveau. De plus, l'ACE publie chaque année le présent bottin, le ici-et-là.

Tous les ans, l'ACE publie aussi plusieurs études sur les pratiques courantes en éducation au Canada, à la suite d'enquêtes menées à l'échelle du pays. Ces études couvrent tout un éventail de sujets.

MEMBRES

Membre à titre individuel: La cotisation annuelle est de 80 $ (de septembre 1990 à août 1991; 85$ de septembre 1991 à août 1992) et donne droit à un abonnement gratuit au magazine trimestriel de l'ACE, Éducation Canada et au bulletin qui paraît neuf fois par an. Les membres à titre individuel bénéficient également d'un rabais sur toutes les publications générales de l'ACE et peuvent s'inscrire au congrès et à tous les colloques de l'ACE à un prix d'inscription réduit.

Membre associé: Peut devenir membre associé de l'ACE toute association, institution ou organisme non commercial qui se rattache ou s'intéresse à l'éducation. La cotisation est de 245 $ par an. Les membres associés ont droit à un exemplaire gratuit de toutes les publications de l'ACE et peuvent inscrire autant de délégués officiels qu'ils désirent au congrès annuel de l'ACE et aux colloques de l'ACE, à un prix réduit.

SERVICE RÉSERVÉ AU COMMISSIONS SCOLAIRES

Les commissions scolaires peuvent s'abonner aux Services d'information de l'ACE et recevoir plusieurs exemplaires des rapports, périodiques, et autres publications dès leur parution. Le prix de l'abonnement est basé sur le nombre d'élèves (325 $ minimum). Renseignements envoyés sur demande.

SCHOOL BOARD OFFICIALS

CADRES DES COMMISSIONS SCOLAIRES

School boards are listed alphabetically by city or town. Since many boards do not include the place in their name, an index of those boads and where they may be found precedes the listing for each province.

Les commissions scolaires sont classées par ordre alphabétique et par ville. Cependant, l'appellation d'un grand nombre d'entre elles ne comprend pas le nom de la ville où elles se situent. Aussi avons-nous fait précédé la liste de chaque province d'un répertoire "commissions scolaires ...ville."

COMMUNITY COLLEGES

LES CÉGEPS ET LES COLLEGES PRIVÉS

The inclusive term "community college" is used despite some variation in the nature and purposes of the institutions listed. Telex (or Fax, etc.) numbers follow each entry for those institutions subscribing to electronic network services.

Le terme générique "collèges communautaires" a été utilisé pour regrouper sous une seule rubrique diverses institutions postsecondaires des provinces anglophones. Les numéros de Telex ou de télécopieur apparaissent en regard du nom des abonnés.

Within the context of the Canadian criminal justice system, education is an important approach to crime prevention at the juvenile level. Education is also an important approach to rehabilitation for adults, and comprehensive schools are therefore operated in most federal penitentiaries.

Dans le contexte du régime de justice pénale, l'éducation constitue, pour les jeunes, un important moyen de prévention du crime. Elle est également, pour les adultes, un important moyen de réadaptation sociale. C'est donc pourquoi la plupart des pénitenciers fédéraux comptent des installations scolaires polyvalentes.
